The City of Harrisonburg will be hosting a public meeting about the Chicago Corridor Study on Tuesday April 19.

The general public is invited to drop-in to the meeting at Park View Mennonite Church anytime between six and eight in the evening to ask questions, provide feedback and learn more about the study. The study focuses on Chicago Avenue from Gay Street to Mt. Clinton Pike, Mt. Clinton Pike from Lincolnshire Drive, just beyond the City line, to Virginia Avenue (VA Route 42), and Park Road and Parkwood Drive where they run through the campus of Eastern Mennonite University (EMU) and Eastern Mennonite High School (EMHS).

The corridor study will develop recommendations for traffic, engineering, and land use for the corridor, along with a series of conceptual engineering sketches to initiate further engineering design for future roadway improvements.

Park View Mennonite Church is located at 1600 College Avenue.

More information about the Chicago Corridor Study is available online at www.chicagoavenue.org.
