Crews Repair Water Main Break

Harrisonburg, VA – The Public Utilities Department continues working in the area of a water main break from early this morning.

Around 3 a.m. the city was alerted of a water main break at the intersection of Port Republic Road and South Main Street.

Crews with the Public Utilities Department responded and began repairing the six inch cast iron pipe.

The pipe has been repaired and crews are now in the process of milling and repaving the street.

Water in this area is still temporarily turned off.

Motorists should continue avoiding this area throughout the remainder of the day. This intersection is not anticipated to be open to traffic until later this evening.
