Holiday Trash Collection Schedule

Harrisonburg, VA – City offices in Harrisonburg will be closed on Thursday, November 27 and Friday, November 28 in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Trash that is normally collected on Thursday, November 27 will be collected on Wednesday, November 26. Residents who will be impacted by this are also asked to hold their recycling until the next collection date of Thursday, December 4. Please hold bulk and yard debris collected on Wednesday, November 26 until the next collection date of Wednesday, December 10.

Trash that is normally collected on Friday, November 28 will be collected on Monday, December 1. Residents who will be impacted by this are also asked to hold their recycling until the next collection date of Friday, December 5.

The city offers a service to residents, who wish to receive an extra reminder about the changes in their trash collection schedule. Residents may sign up for an email notification to be sent to them when there is a change in their trash collection. This typically occurs during the city holidays or when inclement weather affects the trash and recycling collection.

Residents are encouraged to visit www.HarrisonburgVA.gov/notify-me and simply provide your name and email address to sign up. This service is free and users may unsubscribe at anytime.

For more information on trash collection, please visit <http://www.HarrisonburgVA.gov/trash> or call Public Works at 540-434-5928.

The City of Harrisonburg is centrally located in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. It is home to approximately 50,000 people. More information about the City of Harrisonburg is online at www.HarrisonburgVA.gov.
