New Year's Holiday Alters City Schedules

Harrisonburg, VA – City offices in Harrisonburg will be closed on January 1, 2015 in observance of the New Year's holiday.

The Harrisonburg Department of Public Transportation (HDPT) will not provide bus service on January 1, 2015. HDPT will run Routes 1-6, the Bridgewater/Dayton Shuttle, and paratransit service on a normal schedule until January 12, 2015 when JMU resumes for the spring semester.

All city offices will reopen on Friday, January 2, 2015 at 8:00 a.m.

Trash and Recycling Collection

Please take note of the following trash, recycling, and bulk collection changes:

- Refuse for Thursday, January 1st will be collected on Friday January 2nd. Please hold recycling until the next collection day of January 8th.

Annual Christmas Tree Collection

The city will be collecting live Christmas trees January 5-9, 2015. Please place your tree at the curb for collection. After January 9th, residents may place their trees curbside on their regularly scheduled bulk/yard debris collection days.

The city offers a service to residents, who wish to receive an extra reminder about the changes in their trash collection schedule. Residents may sign up for an email notification to be sent to them when there is a change in their trash collection. This typically occurs during the city holidays or when inclement weather affects the trash and recycling collection.

Residents are encouraged to visit www.HarrisonburgVA.gov/notify-me and simply provide your name and email address to sign up. This service is free and users may unsubscribe at anytime. For more information on trash collection, please visit <http://www.HarrisonburgVA.gov/trash> or call Public Works at 540-434-5928.
