Tons of Free Fun at Upcoming Open House

Harrisonburg, VA – Harrisonburg’s Parks and Recreation Department is having its first annual open house to give the community an opportunity to test current classes and programs.

The event will be held on Saturday, March 21 from 2:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. at the Cecil F. Gilkerson Community Activities Center, 305 South Dogwood Drive.

Throughout the day, classes will be taught simultaneously in 30 minute intervals. Those classes include zumba for kids and adults, genealogy, yoga, boot camp workouts, painting, pickleball, and much more.

Gym memberships and family pool passes will be given away during the open house.

Harrisonburg Parks and Recreation’s Special Events Coordinator, Matthew Little, expressed his excitement about planning the open house, “We are thrilled to offer our first annual open house. It gives the Harrisonburg community a glance at all we have to offer. We have such a wide variety of activities and events to fit anyone’s interest.”

Make the most of this planned event and don’t miss the chance to get an inside look at the programs available through Harrisonburg Parks and Recreation.

All classes and events held during the open house are free and open to all City residents.
