City Seeks Input Through Be Heard Harrisonburg

Harrisonburg, Va. – Harrisonburg residents are invited to give their input on Be Heard Harrisonburg.

A survey has been created to gather ideas on what people would like to see included in an update of Harrisonburg's bicycle and pedestrian plan.

The city has worked to provide a framework for enhancing the safety and attractiveness of walking and biking through various improvement projects and public programs.

Members of the community are encouraged to share their thoughts on how to make walking and biking in Harrisonburg safer, more comfortable and more efficient.

To access the survey, simply visit www.BeHeardHarrisonburg.org and click on "Bicycle and Pedestrian Plan."

The public comment period for the next revision of this plan is now open through June 17. Comments can be submitted on Be Heard Harrisonburg, by email to Thanh.Dang@HarrisonburgVA.gov, or mail to ATTN: Thanh Dang, Harrisonburg Public Works, 320 E. Mosby Road Harrisonburg, VA 22801.

The current bicycle and pedestrian plan was adopted in 2010 and is now being updated with an anticipated adoption in 2016.
