Deadline Nears for Stormwater Utility Credit Applications

Harrisonburg, Va. – Harrisonburg’s Public Works Department continues accepting applications from property owners for the Stormwater Utility Fee Credit Program.

New stormwater practices need to be installed and applications for both existing and newly constructed stormwater credit practices must be submitted to the Public Works Department by July 1 (next week).

This credit program encourages property owners, both residential and non-residential, to improve local stormwater quality and reduce the stormwater quantity leaving commercial and residential properties.

To date, 86 applications have been submitted for residential credits and 79 have received total approval for credits. The remaining applications are still under review. Property owners who have submitted an application and received approval have received anywhere from a 10 to 50 percent credit to their stormwater utility bill.

The program manual, sample pictures and the stormwater utility mapping tool can be found at www.HarrisonburgVA.gov/stormwater-utility.
