HRECC Names 2015 Communicator of the Year

April 14, 2016

Harrisonburg, Va - The Harrisonburg-Rockingham Emergency Communications Center (HRECC) held its annual awards ceremony yesterday, which coincided with National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week.

The HRECC recognized a number of employees including several communicators, who were honored for their work in administering life-saving, pre-arrival instructions through the use of emergency medical dispatching (EMD) during 2015.

As part of that ceremony, the HRECC selected Senior Communicator Alyssa Hottinger as the 2015 Communicator of the Year. Hottinger, a life-long resident of Rockingham County, has been employed by HRECC since 2011 and is a valued employee and member of this elite team.

“Communicator Hottinger is a dedicated member of the staff and is quick to put the needs of the ECC, the community, and the public safety providers ahead of her own,” said Dee Dee Sencindiver, HRECC’s operations manager.

Senior Communicator Hottinger spent much of the last year continuing to develop her skills and leadership qualities. Most recently she has been added to the HRECC Telecommunications Emergency Response Team and the Harrisonburg Communications Cache.

Senior Communicator Hottinger is available for interviews. Please contact Dee Dee Sencindiver at 540-830-9113 or ddsencindiver@hrecc.org to set up an interview time.
