African-American Culture Festival this Weekend

Harrisonburg, Va. – The city of Harrisonburg is set to host a festival that will take place this weekend.

The 23rd annual African-American Culture Festival will be held on Saturday, June 18. Events will take place in Ralph Sampson Park, which is located at 431 E. Washington St., from 11:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m.

The purpose of this festival is to create unity and celebrate heritage and diversity through expressions of faith and love.

Attendees are invited to enjoy an afternoon of entertainment, fellowship, activities, crafts, arts, music, food, exhibitors, and more! There is no admission charge to attend this event.

Additional information is available at www.HarrisonburgVA.gov/aaf-festival.

The Harrisonburg Parks and Recreation Department manages 12 parks, A Dream Come True Playground and numerous other playgrounds, a skate park, bike trails, soccer complex, softball and baseball fields, a dog park, and two pools. The largest park in the City of Harrisonburg is Hillandale Park that encompasses 74 acres. More information about the parks can be found online at www.HarrisonburgVA.gov/parks-recreation.
