Local Art Will Appear on Tree in Executive Mansion

Harrisonburg, Va. – The city of Harrisonburg submitted local art for a tree that will be displayed over the holidays in Virginia’s Executive Mansion.

The city partnered with the Virginia Municipal League (VML), of which Harrisonburg is a member, and collected ornaments made by local artists. From the ornaments submitted, one was chosen and has been sent to Richmond to adorn a tree in the Executive Mansion. All other ornaments will be displayed on the tree in the main lobby of City Hall.

The ornament selected (pictured below) was submitted by Teresa Arey, who also is an employee at the Parks and Recreation Department. Arey submitted a handmade fabric ball with a picture of the local courthouse.

This is the second year that the city has participated in the collection of ornaments.

The City of Harrisonburg is centrally located in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. It is home to approximately 50,000 people. More information about the City of Harrisonburg is online at www.HarrisonburgVA.gov.
