Police Investigate Rollover Car Crash

Harrisonburg, Va. – The Harrisonburg Police Department (HPD) is investigating a car crash that happened at the intersection of Community and Wolfe streets.

Around 11:30 a.m. today, crews responded to the report of a crash, involving two vehicles.

The vehicles, a 2009 Hyundai Elantra and 2000 Dodge Grand Caravan, crashed in the intersection, which forced the van to roll onto its side.

The passenger car had five occupants, an adult and a juvenile were transported to Sentara RMH Medical Center by ambulance. The driver and only occupant of the van was airlifted to the University of Virginia Medical Center.

Members of HPD’s Accident Reconstruction Team are on the scene of the crash to investigate the incident.

The intersection of Community and Wolfe streets will be closed until this portion of the investigation is complete.

In addition to HPD, assistance was provided by the Harrisonburg Fire Department and Harrisonburg Rescue Squad.
