Summer Registration Opens for Parks and Recreation Programs

Harrisonburg, Va. – The city of Harrisonburg’s Parks and Recreation Department has opened registration for its summer programs.

Staff with the Parks and Recreation Department offer a wide variety of programs for all ages, as well as computer and fitness rooms that are available for the community’s use. This summer, the Parks and Recreation Department’s programs include outdoor adventure, fitness, special interest, art, dance, kid-friendly, camps, 50 and Wiser, swim lessons, and much more!

“We want to remind members of the community of the great programs we offer throughout the summer,” explains Brittany Clem, marketing and special projects coordinator with the Parks and Recreation Department. “There truly is something for everyone to enjoy and learn.”

New this year will be a youth ultimate Frisbee camp, outdoor adventures for women, 50 and Wiser line dancing, and online registration for preschool swim lessons.

The current activity guide is for programs and classes from June through August.

To register online, view the current activity guide, or for other information, visit www.HarrisonburgVA.gov/activities.

The City of Harrisonburg is centrally located in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. It is home to almost 55,000 people. More information about the City of Harrisonburg is online at www.HarrisonburgVA.gov.
