Harrisonburg Tourism Releases New Video

Harrisonburg, Va. – Harrisonburg Tourism and Visitor Services has released a new video, which is aimed at marketing and promoting the area as a destination for conferences and meetings.

The new video can be found online and is a visual example of the amenities in Harrisonburg, provides ideas for fun trips, and showcases the area’s featured attractions.

“The goal for this video is to visually appeal to businesses and individuals wanting to host a conference, meeting, or just visit the area,” explained Brenda Black, tourism director.

Harrisonburg offers a wide range of facilities to accommodate your next conference, meeting, or special event. With more than 2,100 guest rooms, two historic districts, 12 city parks, and more than 80 locally-owned eateries, Harrisonburg offers something for all to enjoy.
