Work Being Conducted on City Water Line

Harrisonburg, Va. – The Harrisonburg Public Utilities Department will conduct work on a water line tomorrow morning, causing a temporary interruption in water service.

Starting tomorrow (August 22), city crews will be installing valves on a 10-inch water line. Water service will temporarily be turned off to customers from the 9100 block of Rawley Pike to Riven Rock Park.

This work will take place from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Traffic will not be impacted as the work will be done away from the roadway.

This schedule is subject to change due to weather conditions or unforeseen maintenance on equipment.

The City of Harrisonburg is centrally located in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. It is home to almost 55,000 people. More information about the City of Harrisonburg is online at www.HarrisonburgVA.gov.
