City Hosts Stream Clean Up

Harrisonburg, Va. – The city of Harrisonburg will be hosting a downtown stream clean up next week.

On August 30, from 4:30 p.m. until 6:30 p.m. crews will clean downtown areas in an effort to keep Blacks Run free of litter and debris.

“After our annual Blacks Run Clean Up Day in the spring, volunteers asked for another opportunity to clean up their community,” explained Rebecca Stimson, stormwater compliance specialist with the Public Works Department. “We were excited for the interest and are looking forward to another successful event.”

Members of the community are invited to participate in the clean-up event. Supplies will be provided and those interested are invited to register by Friday, August 24 at 5:00 p.m. by visiting <https://www.harrisonburgva.gov/downtown-stream-clean-up>

For additional information and ways to keep our community clean, visit www.cleanstream.org.

The City of Harrisonburg is centrally located in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. It is home to almost 55,000 people. More information about the City of Harrisonburg is online at www.HarrisonburgVA.gov.
