HPD Continues to Investigate Armed Robbery

Jan. 11, 2011

The Harrisonburg Police Department responded at 10:15 p.m. to the 700 block of East Market Street for the report of an armed robbery.

A male said he was in a parking lot getting into his vehicle, when two unknown males robbed him. One offender displayed a gun and took money from the victim.

No one was injured during the incident.

An officer responding to the incident detained one suspect close to where the robbery took place.

Roncell Brandon, 18, of Harrisonburg was charged with conspiring to commit a robbery, robbery-principal in the second degree, and the use of a firearm in the commission of a felony-principal in the second degree.

The second suspect is described as a black male approximately 5 feet 3 inches tall and weighs 150 to 180 pounds. He was last seen wearing a dark hooded sweatshirt and jeans.

This remains an ongoing investigation.

Anyone with information about the robbery or the second suspect is asked to call Crime Solvers at 574-5050. Crime Solvers is an anonymous tip line and callers could receive up to a $1,000 reward.
