HPD Investigates Robbery of CVS

March 8, 2011

The cooperative efforts between CVS employees and Harrisonburg Police Department patrol officers led to the capture of the robbery suspect, who is now in police custody.

David Stephens, 27, of Staunton was charged with robbery.

At 3:15 p.m. patrol officers responded to CVS Pharmacy, 1755 S. High St. for the report of a male robbing the business.

The offender took pharmaceutical drugs from the store and fled on foot.

“Officers received helpful information from victims and were able to apprehend the offender behind the business,” said Mary-Hope Vass, Public Information Officer and Crime Analyst.

No injuries were reported during this incident and it does not appear as though the offender was armed.

Note to media: The offender is still being processed and a mugshot is not yet available but I will send it as soon as possible.
