July 4th Traffic Alert and Street Closures

July 1, 2011

The Harrisonburg Police Department would like to remind motorists of upcoming street closures for the July 4th downtown celebrations.

Below is a complete list of street closures for Monday, July 4:

- Court Square (10 a.m. until 11:30 p.m.)
- West Market and Graham streets from Court Square to Liberty Street (10 a.m. until 11:30 p.m.)
- Left lane of South Liberty Street from Bruce Street to Municipal Building parking lot (3:30 p.m. until 6 p.m.)
- Main Street from Cantrell to Gay streets (3 p.m. – 6 p.m.)

Once the parade is over, the majority of Main Street will be reopened. Main Street from Franklin to Elizabeth streets will stay closed until the conclusion of the downtown events.

With the increase in foot traffic, motorists should use caution and be vigilant for pedestrians in the downtown area.

Throughout the weekend, officers will also be patrolling for drunk drivers through increased saturation patrols. The Department encourages motorists to always designate a sober driver and celebrate responsibly.

The Harrisonburg Police Department wishes everyone a happy and safe July 4th weekend!
