News Release

HPD Continues Search for a Wanted Male

July 8, 2011

The Harrisonburg Police Department continues to look for a man, who is wanted by law enforcement.

Officers received information that a man, with an outstanding warrant, was in the area of Rockingham Drive and Gay Street.

On Thursday, July 7 around 8 p.m. officers tried to arrest Jamie Chacon, 31, of Harrisonburg for an outstanding probation violation warrant. Chacon fled from police and is believed to have left the area.

A reverse 9-1-1 was sent last night to residents in the area. This was to inform the neighbors of the increased police presence and ask them to be on the lookout for the wanted male.

Anyone with information on Jamie Chacon's whereabouts is asked to call Crime Solvers at 540-574-5050. Crime Solvers is an anonymous tip line and callers could receive up to a $1,000 reward.

Jamie C. Chacon
