Harrisonburg Police Receives Traffic Safety Honors

July 24, 2012

The Virginia Association of Chiefs of Police released today the recipients of the 2011 Virginia Law Enforcement Challenge awards for the best traffic safety programs in the state.

The Virginia Law Enforcement Challenge is based on entries that highlight their traffic safety education and enforcement activities in the past calendar year.

This year, forty-one Virginia agencies entered the state and national competitions. The categories are broken down by size of the departments, municipal, university, private and sheriff's office.

Harrisonburg City Police received 2nd place overall in the municipal category with 76-125 Officers.

Harrisonburg City Police also received the special award for Motorcycle Safety in Virginia.
