News Release

HPD Searching for Person of Interest

Sept. 17, 2012

The Harrisonburg Police Department is investigating the report of a sexual assault that occurred on Sept. 9.

This incident happened between the hours of 2 a.m. and 3:15 a.m.

The 21-year-old female victim reported that she was getting a ride from Sheetz, 798 E. Market St., to her residence. The victim got into a silver Honda Accord with two males.

After leaving the store parking lot, the female and one male were dropped off on Country Club Court. The assault took place a short time later near the railroad tracks in the same vicinity.

HPD is asking for assistance in identifying the male pictured in surveillance images. The male is considered a person of interest at this time.

Anyone who is able to identify the male or may have additional information regarding this case is asked to contact the Harrisonburg Police Department.

Those with information are asked to contact Crime Solvers. Tipsters may text "HPD" plus the tip to CRIMES, which is 274637 or call 540-574-5050. Crime Solvers is an anonymous tip line and callers could receive up to a $1,000 reward.
