HPD Continues Death Investigation

Harrisonburg, VA – The Harrisonburg Police Department continues collecting information from a death investigation that began yesterday.

Investigators are working with the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner to determine the cause of death and positive identification of the male.

Yesterday morning around 8:30 a.m., officers responded to Dutch Mill Court for the report of a male, who was found deceased inside of an apartment.

Until the male has been positively identified and his next of kin has been notified, the male's name is not being released.

Police are still reaching out to the community for any information surrounding this case.

Individuals are encouraged to call Crime Solvers at 540-574-5050, an anonymous tip line. Tipsters may also provide information by texting "HPD" to 274637 (CRIMES).
