HPD Investigating Credit Card Thefts and Forgeries

February 5, 2013

The Harrisonburg Police Department is currently investigating several credit card thefts that occurred in the City of Harrisonburg. In October of 2012, several vehicles in the City of Harrisonburg were broken in to and items from the vehicles were stolen. Some of these belongings included credit cards.

After the larcenies occurred, the suspects used the stolen credit cards to purchase items at Wal-Mart on Burgess Road and at the Wal-Mart located in Rockingham County on John Wayland Highway.

The suspect's descriptions are as follows

- 1) White male, mid to late twenties, close-cut/shaved haircut, and was last seen wearing a black zip-up hooded jacket with light colored designs across the front. This suspect has also been identified in another incident as wearing a dark colored hooded sweatshirt.
- 2) White male 35-40 years of age, medium length dark hair, dark beard, and glasses. The suspect was last seen wearing a dark colored zip up jacket and a baseball style hat. Suspect has also been identified in another incident as wearing a light colored long sleeve shirt, blue jeans and a baseball style hat

The suspects have been identified as operating a silver or grey vehicle.
