Harrisonburg Police Seek Assistance in Locating Stolen Trailer

On October 6, the Harrisonburg Police Department received a larceny report of a 2009 Currahee trailer. The trailer is described as a dual axle trailer with a black frame and wooden flat bed. The vehicle registration on the trailer at the time of the larceny was 365617TL and was registered through Virginia. The trailer was taken from Armstrongs Auto Service, located on Leray Circle.

At approximately 7:10 p.m. on October 5, video surveillance shows a white dodge pickup truck back up to the trailer. A white male then exits the truck and attaches the trailer to the truck and then leaves. The male appears to be wearing dark in color pants and a light colored shirt.
