National Police Week 2014: Honoring and Remembering Our Fallen Law Enforcement Officers

[Harrisonburg, VA] – Again this year, communities across the United States will come together during National Police Week—May 11-17, 2014—to honor and remember those law enforcement officers who made the ultimate sacrifice, as well as the family members, friends and fellow officers they left behind.

This year, the names of 286 officers killed in the line of duty are being added to the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial in Washington, DC. These 286 officers include 100 officers who were killed during 2013, plus 186 officers who died in previous years but whose stories of sacrifice had been lost to history until now.

Harrisonburg City and Rockingham County officers lost in the line of duty:

- Sergeant Manual Trenary – Harrisonburg Police – End of Watch 10/8/1959
- Patrolman Wayne Stoutameyer – Bridgewater Police – End of Watch 05/25/1976
- Deputy John Rafter – Rockingham County Sheriff's Office – End of Watch 02/07/1983
- Chief William Davies – Grottoes Police – End of Watch 07/21/1988

All fallen law enforcement officers from Rockingham County and Harrisonburg City will be remembered during Police Week services:

There will be an Open House in front of the Public Safety Building, 101 N. Main Street, Monday May 12th at 1:00 pm. This event is open to the public. We will have static displays as well as Bike, K9 and Motor Unit demonstrations at 1:30 and 2:30.

The flag ceremony will be held on National Peace Officers Day Thursday, May 15th at 9:00 am in front of the Public Safety Building. Commonwealth Attorney Marsha Garst and Chief Monticelli will be speaking.

Note to the media:

You are invited to attend the Opening House Monday at 1:00 pm, and the Flag Ceremony Thursday at 9:00 am.

Chief Monticelli will be available for comment after the Flag Ceremony Thursday Morning.

The names of all 286 fallen officers nationwide will be formally dedicated on the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial in Washington, DC, during the 26th Annual Candlelight Vigil on the evening of May 13, 2014. So that people across the country can experience this unique and powerful ceremony, the vigil will be webcast live over the Internet beginning at 8 PM (EDT) on May 13th. To register for this free online event, visit www.LawMemorial.org/webcast.

The Candlelight Vigil is one of many commemorative events taking place in the nation's capital during National Police Week 2014. The national observance is organized by a group of organizations led by the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund (NLEOMF), Concerns of Police Survivors, the Fraternal Order of Police and the Fraternal Order of Police Auxiliary.

On May 15th each year, the Fraternal Order of Police and the Fraternal Order of Police Auxiliary host a ceremony on the west steps of the U.S. Capitol to honor fallen law enforcement officers and their families.

In tribute to American law enforcement officers and at the request of the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund, Public Law 103-322 designates May 15th National Peace Officers Memorial Day, which is one of only two days each year during which government agencies, businesses and residents are to fly their U.S. flags at half staff.
