Tractor-Trailer Crash on Vine St.

Harrisonburg, Va. This morning, at approximately 9:45 AM, a tractor-trailer overturned in the 200 block of Vine St. The rig, owned by V & M Trucking, was en route to Valley Proteins. The trailer's contents spilled out onto the curb and embankment. The Harrisonburg Fire Department HAZMAT unit responded and contained the spill. Vine St., from Harris Gardens to Longview Oaks, was closed for approximately 8 hours while the tractor-tractor was recovered and the contents of the trailer were removed. No injuries were reported. The driver of the rig was charged with failure to maintain proper control.

As of this release time, Vine St. is being opened to traffic.
