Update to Death Investigation

Harrisonburg, Virginia- The Harrisonburg Police Department continues to work on the investigation into the body found along a set of railroad tracks on August 25.

Investigators have identified the individual as 60-year-old Michael Alen Meyer. Meyer is not from this area and has been transient through several states.

Investigators found no signs of foul play and all evidence to this point is leading towards an apparent suicide. HPD is still waiting for the toxicology report, which could take several months. This investigation continues.

Anyone with information regarding this investigation is asked to call Crime Solvers at (540) 574-5050 or text "HPD" to 274637 (CRIMES).
