HPD Makes Arrest in Sexual Assault

On October 18, 2015 officers from the Harrisonburg Police Department responded to Rockingham Memorial Hospital to speak with the victim of a sexual assault that occurred in the 2400-block of Campus View Circle in the City of Harrisonburg. The victim, a 22 year-old female, stated that an acquaintance she had met the previous night had raped her in an apartment during the early-morning hours of October 18.

Both the victim and the alleged offender in this incident were in Harrisonburg to visit friends at the apartment where the offense occurred. The investigation revealed the identification of the offender as Gregory Weiss, a 22 year-old white male from Washington, DC. Officers subsequently located Weiss near the scene of the offense and arrested him without incident. Weiss was transported to the Rockingham-Harrisonburg Regional Jail and faces one charge of forcible rape.
