Selection of New Domestic Violence and Violent Crimes Against Women Investigator (D.O.V.V)
Harrisonburg, VA –

The Harrisonburg Police selects its new DOVW Investigator.

In September 2015 the Harrisonburg Police Department applied for a grant which will assist the agency in its response and investigation to violent crimes against women. The Grant known as VSTOP, offered by the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services was awarded late December 2015.

The grant will fund one fulltime investigator who will have both investigatory responsibilities and management oversight of all Harrisonburg Police Department activities related to violent crimes against women with a special focus on domestic violence. This investigator will also serve as a program facilitator connecting many local women's advocacy resources that normally assist victims in police related matters.

On Monday February 8th the Harrisonburg Police Major Crimes Division selected Investigator Tristin Jackson for the position. Tristin is a nine year Harrisonburg Police employee, five years as Police officer. Tristin is one of newest additions to the Major Crimes Division. Tristin was promoted to Investigator last year (2015) after successfully finishing first in the selection process.

For further information please contact the Investigator Tristin Jackson or Lt. Roger D. Knott.
