HPD Hosts Recruiting Event

Harrisonburg, VA –The Harrisonburg Police Department is reaching out to local college students to garner new prospects interested in a law enforcement related career. Members of HPD will host around 40 college students on Saturday, February 27, 2016 by providing a tour of the police department as well as live demonstrations of several specialized positions. Students from Blue Ridge Community College, Bridgewater College, Eastern Mennonite University, James Madison University and Mary Baldwin College were invited. “We want to give the students an opportunity to meet with police officers, to see the various positions available in most departments and to answer any of their questions about employment and police work,” says Sgt. Todd Miller, Supervisor of the Personnel Development Unit. This is the first event of its kind however, HPD plans to host similar events in the future.
