Subject Arrested After Foot Pursuit

Harrisonburg, VA – On March 2, 2016, officers with the Harrisonburg Police Department (HPD) responded to the area of Harris Gardens Apartment Complex for an unrelated call for service when they were directed to investigate the possibility of a wanted subject in the area. Officers responded to the area where the wanted subject was last seen and subsequently engaged in a foot pursuit that extended into the northeast area of the city. A perimeter was set up surrounding a multi-block radius while HPD's K9 Streak began a search for the subject. Javish Camacho Bramble was later arrested without incident after being located by the police K9 under a resident's porch. Camacho Bramble was taken into custody on three charges of grand larceny and one probation violation. He is currently being held at the Rockingham County Jail without bond.
