Harrisonburg Police Investigate Threats

On today's date, April 8, 2016, the Harrisonburg Police Department was informed of a possible threat at the Harrisonburg High School. After further investigation by the police, it was determined that the threat was not specific to any of the school buildings. As a precautionary measure, the superintendent of City Schools closed all schools effective at noon and asked staff to go home. Today was a teacher workday. No students were in school. The incident is still under investigation.
