Harrisonburg Police Department Continues to Further Educate in Leadership Development

[Harrisonburg, VA] – Three Lieutenants graduated from the 392nd class with the School of Police Staff and Command provided by Northwestern University Center for Public Safety on May 27, 2016 in Hershey, Pennsylvania.

These Lieutenants graduated with their class of fifty-two from the ten-week leadership school. Forty-nine of the participants were leaders from the Pennsylvania State Police.

The Harrisonburg Police Department congratulates Lieutenant Carl R. Cline III, Lieutenant Roger D. Knott and Lieutenant Phillip R. Ritchie Jr. for their achievement and dedication.

Lieutenant Cline and Lieutenant Ritchie will return to duty as Commanders within the Patrol Division while Lieutenant Knott will return as the Commander of the Criminal Investigations Division.
