Harrisonburg Police Search for Runaway Juveniles

The Harrisonburg Police Department is currently attempting to locate two girls who ran away from home on July 17, 2016 in the City of Harrisonburg. The girls are Claudia Garcia-Pineda, 14, and Carmen Alejandra Rodriguez, 13, both of Harrisonburg. It appears that each of the girls left home voluntarily, but there is concern for their safety as neither of the girls has responded to requests to contact their families and return home. The girls have been known to frequent the area of Deer Run Apartments in Harrisonburg as well as other apartment complexes near Port Republic Road or Norwood Street.

The Harrisonburg Police Department is requesting assistance from the community in returning these juveniles to their families. Attached are photographs of each of the girls. The department requests that anyone with information pertaining to their whereabouts contact Det. Thingstad with the Major Crimes Unit at (540) 437-2640. Callers can provide anonymous tips at CrimeSolvers: 540-574-5050 or text "HPD" plus the tip to CRIMES (274637).
