HPD Investigates Two-Vehicle Crash

Harrisonburg, Va. – The Harrisonburg Police Department, Fire, and EMS responded to a two-vehicle traffic crash at approximately 6:30 pm. The crash occurred at the intersection of Broad St. and Elizabeth St. A Honda sedan and an Isuzu SUV were involved in the crash. The female driver of the SUV was flown to UVA in serious condition. No other injuries were reported.

This is an ongoing investigation currently being worked on-scene by HPD's Accident Reconstruction Team (ART). The intersection will be closed until their work is complete and the scene cleared.

The Harrisonburg Police Department requests citizens with any information useful to the crash investigation contact Cpl. Wayne Westfall, HPD Traffic Division, by calling (540) 434-4436.
