HPD Officer Receives Law Enforcement Commendation

Harrisonburg, Va. – An officer with the Harrisonburg Police Department (HPD) was recently recognized by a local organization.

On October 17, Officer Dylan Johnson received the law enforcement commendation medal from the Sons of the American Revolution.

This award aims to recognize accomplishments and exceptional service to those serving in law enforcement. Officer Johnson was selected from a pool of nominations that included several members of our local law enforcement community.

Lieutenant Todd Miller, patrol commander, praised Officer Johnson's efforts and his award. "Officer Johnson has proven to be a hard working, reliable, and motivated officer with some impressive accomplishments. He's very deserving of this award."
