HPD Assists in Aggravated Assault Investigation

Harrisonburg, Va. – The Harrisonburg Police Department is assisting another law enforcement agency with an aggravated assault. On June 12, at approximately 8:20 a.m. officers from the Harrisonburg Police Department responded to the 1000 block of Sully Drive for an individual with stab wounds.

The 21-year old, male victim was transported by Pegasus Ambulance to the University of Virginia Medical Center for treatment. The stabbing reportedly occurred earlier in the morning in Frederick County and the victim was apparently thrown out of a vehicle in Harrisonburg on Sully Drive, just east of Interstate 81. Investigators are looking for a green 2-door pickup truck, possibly a Ford, with West Virginia plates that was occupied by two males.
