Harrisonburg, VA –

On Thursday, November 1, 2018 at approximately 4:19pm the Harrisonburg Police Department along with local Fire and Rescue agencies responded to the area near the intersection of Neff Avenue and Sunchase Drive in Harrisonburg for a report of a traffic crash involving a public transportation bus.

Upon arrival, officers determined that a City of Harrisonburg public transportation bus traveled over an embankment along Neff Avenue stopping inside the Sunchase apartment complex. The driver was transported to Sentara RMH Medical Center with minor injuries. No passengers or bystanders were injured in this incident.

The Harrisonburg Police Department along with the Harrisonburg Department of Public Transportation is actively investigating the cause of the accident.

The Harrisonburg Police Department asks that if you are a witness to the crash or have further information to please call the non-emergency number (540) 434-4436.
