City Man Arrested for Threats Over Social Media

Harrisonburg, Va. – On December 16, HPD received calls from concerned citizens that an individual was making threats of violence against the community over various social media platforms. Investigators quickly identified and apprehended the individual.

Samual Mays, 22, of Harrisonburg was arrested and charged with Knowingly Communicating Threats to do Bodily Harm.

The Harrisonburg Police Department would like to thank its citizens for helping to bring this threat investigation to a prompt and safe conclusion. There appears to be no further threat to the community.

HPD also reminds the community that any type of threats of violence, including those made over social media, are taken seriously and will be investigated. Citizens are urged to call the police regarding any type of suspicious or threatening communication they observe.
