2019 Adventure Race - Register Now to Enjoy “Early Bird” Rate

Harrisonburg, Va. – The Harrisonburg Police Department is gearing up for its 2019 Adventure Race to be held at the Harrisonburg Police Training Grounds on Saturday, June 22. Last year, the race attracted more than 700 participants, and raised over $100,000, and this year the department hopes to continue this annual event; proceeds which will go to various projects to include funding youth programs in the community.

Registration for the event is now open and perspective participants can enjoy an “early bird” rate if they sign up before Wednesday, May 1. The 2019 Adventure Race program consists of 3 events that provide challenges and attractions for people of all skill levels.

5K Adventure Race

Breathe some new life into your running regimen. Work your way around the course, conquering obstacles designed to add interest and test your strength and agility. Suitable for all skill levels. Anyone can start, and everyone can finish!

SWAT Obstacle Challenge

Think you can handle some of the physical demands placed on SWAT officers? Give it your all and see how you compare. And you don’t have to be Superman or Wonder Woman, but core strength helps!

Remembrance Walk

The Remembrance Walk is a solemn reminder that law enforcement is a dangerous profession. It offers everyone a way to honor officers killed in the line of duty while protecting their communities.

In addition to the race, challenge and walk, the Harrisonburg Police Department will also be hosting an open house at the venue throughout the day. In addition to K9 demonstrations, police equipment and vehicle displays, a SWAT Simmunitions shoot-off, seat belt convincer, DUI golf cart simulator, rock climbing wall, and AirCare helicopter and fire and rescue vehicles, participants and spectators alike can enjoy food trucks, face painting, kids' activities and more...and yes, even a DJ and music!

Register today at HarrisonburgPoliceFoundation.org ! Registration Prices go up WEDNESDAY!

Follow the HPF Adventure Race Facebook page for the most detailed and up-to-date information.
