Harrisonburg, VA –

Today at approximately 4:15pm the Harrisonburg Police Department responded to Mosaic Federal Credit Union, 31 S. Carlton St for a robbery that had just occurred. Information was received that a male suspect had entered the financial institution and demanded money be placed into a backpack and then fled on foot last seen heading towards a nearby residential area.

The offender Elizah Scott Mangiliman, 32, of Harrisonburg was arrested a short distance from the scene moments after officers arrived. No weapons were involved and there were no injuries resulting from the robbery. Mangiliman is currently being held without bond at the Rockingham County Regional Jail.

The HPD Major Crimes Unit is currently investigating this incident and asks that if you have any further information or were in the area at the time the robbery occurred to please contact the HPD Major Crimes Unit at (540) 437-2650.
