HPD Opens Cold Case

HARRISONBURG, VA – On November 1, 2012 the Harrisonburg Police Department’s Major Crimes Unit (MCU) investigated the suspicious death of a 57-year-old male that resided on Dutch Mill Court in the city of Harrisonburg.

The victim was found deceased in an unusual manner within his apartment. The investigation was not closed and is currently still pending. Advancements in technology has provided the MCU additional leads that are currently being pursued.

The Harrisonburg Police Department recognized that members of our community may have critical information that can greatly assist our detectives with this ongoing investigation. The Major crimes Unit is urging community members to be proactive and supply as much information as possible.

There is a substantial monetary reward if your information assists with our investigation and leads to the arrest of an offender. Individuals are asked to contact Crime Solvers or Detective Spiggle with any information. You can contact the Major Crimes Unit or Detective Spiggle by calling (540) 437-2640. Anonymous tips can be sent to Crime Solvers by calling (540) 574-5050 or by texting “HPD” plus their tip to CRIMES (274637).
