HPD Investigates Traffic Crash Involving Pedestrian

HARRISONBURG, VA – At approximately 4:30 this afternoon, HPD officers and EMS crews responded to the area of Port Republic Road and Devon Lane in Harrisonburg for a report of a traffic crash involving a pedestrian. Upon arrival, officers located a college-age female who had been struck by a vehicle exiting JMU campus.

The victim involved was treated at the scene and transported to Sentara RMH Medical Center for further evaluation. At this time there are no life-threatening injuries reported. The driver, who was identified at the scene of the accident, has been charged with failure to yield to a pedestrian.

The Harrisonburg Police Department is asking anyone with information regarding this incident to contact them at (540) 434-4436. Anonymous tips or witness statements related to this incident or any crime can be sent to Crime Solvers at (540) 574-5050 or by texting “HPD” plus their tip to CRIMES (274637).
