How To Read The Schedule:

① Step 1. Find the stop where you plan to board the bus. Let's assume you want to board at South Main @ 7-11.

② Step 2. Find the name of the route that you plan to take. In this case the bus you'd want is Route 4.

③ Step 3. Check the time that you need to catch the bus in order to get to your destination on time. In this case let us suppose that you want to get from the Massanutten Library before 2:45 PM. We see that the bus is scheduled to arrive at South Main 7-11 at 58 minutes after each hour, so at 1:58 PM, Route 4 will arrive South Main 7-11. A quick glance at the schedule shows us that Route 4 will arrive at Massanutten Library at 2:27 PM, plenty of time for you to walk from the bus stop to your destination.

⑤ Step 5. A common mistake for new riders is assuming that the schedule for every route is the same every day of the week. Make sure that you check the schedule carefully to see about changes in scheduled arrival and departure times that vary with the days of the week. Also, it is important to make sure that the route you want to take operates at the time you wish to take it. Notice how this route ceases operation at 6:37 PM Monday through Friday, but stops one hour earlier on Saturdays.

⑥ Step 6. Be aware if your stop is an on-demand stop. These stops are printed in italics and are followed by this symbol ☎. If you wish for a route to pick you up at one of these stops, call the Harrisonburg Department of Public Transportation office at 432-
