Arrests made as part of investigation involving prostitution of minors

HARRISONBURG, Va. – Multiple individuals were arrested this week as part of a Harrisonburg Police Department investigation into allegations of prostitution and internet crimes involving juvenile victims.

Officers executed arrest warrants at properties in the 400 block of Kelley Street and the 1200 block of Old Furnace Drive on Wednesday, June 17, that resulted in the arrests of Crespo Ghawaga John Alhajana, Jayden LeQuinn Robinson and a 17-year-old juvenile suspect.

The individuals are currently charged with the following:

- Crespo Ghawaga John Alhajana, 19, is charged with using or allowing a vehicle to be used for the purpose of prostitution involving a minor; and pandering, pimping or receiving money from a minor engaged in prostitution.

- Jayden LeQuinn Robinson, 18, is charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor; and keeping, residing in or visiting a bawdy place for immoral purposes.

- The 17-year-old suspect is charged with pandering, pimping or receiving money from a minor engaged in prostitution; and reproducing, transmitting or selling child pornography. The names of juveniles in criminal investigations are not provided publicly.

Additional charges are pending as this remains an active investigation.

Additionally, two individuals also at the residences when police arrived were arrested for unrelated charges. Nathaniel Clayton Reed, 22, is charged with possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. Kasey LeQuinn Robinson, 38, was arrested for probation violation.

Officers initially became aware of these crimes after receiving information that a juvenile female may be involved in prostitution in Harrisonburg. After officers began to investigate, they were also made aware of internet crimes involving juveniles, and the case was investigated by Internet Crimes Against Children detectives within HPD.

The Harrisonburg Police Department is still working to identify all juvenile victims involved in this case. Anyone with information related to this investigation or other ongoing investigations is encouraged to contact Crime Solvers at 540-574-5050 or submit a tip at www.harrisonburgva.gov/tip-411.
