Suspect Arrested in Connection with Indecent Exposure, Carjacking

HARRISONBURG, VA — Tevin Edwin White, 30, of Harrisonburg, has been arrested in Front Royal, VA, in connection with an indecent exposure and carjacking incident that occurred in Harrisonburg over the weekend.

On July 18, officers with the Harrisonburg Police Department (HPD) responded to a report of a male exposing himself inside the Books-A-Million store located in Valley Mall. When officers arrived, the suspect was no longer on location, but a description and video footage of the male were obtained. Later the same day, the suspect was also reported to have been engaging in indecent acts at the Kroger store, where additional video footage of him was recovered.

On the afternoon of July 19, HPD officers were once again dispatched to Kroger following a report of a stolen vehicle. The vehicle's owner had left it running with the keys in the ignition while briefly entering the store. Her children remained inside the car at the time. During that brief period, an unknown male approached the vehicle, removed the children, and drove away in the stolen car. Fortunately, the children were unharmed.

Upon reviewing surveillance footage, the suspect in the carjacking matched the individual from the previous day’s indecent exposure incidents. The suspect was identified as Tevin Edwin White.

A description of the suspect and vehicle was immediately shared with surrounding jurisdictions, and officers began to canvass the area where he was last seen. As they were searching, the Front Royal Police Department alerted our officers that the vehicle had been found, and Tevin White had been arrested in their jurisdiction.
