Three Individuals Part of Large-Scale Financial Crime Ring Arrested in Harrisonburg

Harrisonburg, VA- December 30, 2025- On December 29, 2025, the Harrisonburg Police Department (HPD) was alerted to a vehicle in the area of Burgess Road possibly occupied by wanted individuals. The vehicle, a white Toyota Sienna, was then located in the Home Depot parking lot.

HPD officers made contact with the vehicle, and four occupants were detained without incident. Three of the four occupants initially provided false identification to officers on scene, but were later identified as Elizabeth Tweedy, Timothy Capelle, and Kristen Breen. Both female suspects had out of state warrants for their arrest. They were wanted for the following:

Elizabeth Tweedy:

- Identity Theft (Kansas)

Kristen Breen

- Rogue and Vagabond x5 (Maryland)
- Theft between 1.5k-25k x3 (Maryland)
- Credit Card Theft x14 (Maryland)
- Theft between $100-1.5k x4 (Maryland)
- Displaying a Fake ID x2 (Maryland)

These individuals are believed to be involved with “Felony Lane Gang” smash and grab incidents The Felony Lane Gang is a nationwide criminal organization responsible for widespread thefts from vehicles, identity fraud, and the rapid cashing of fraudulent checks across multiple states. Their crimes have impacted countless victims, often targeting families at everyday locations such as parks, fitness centers, and shopping malls. The removal of these offenders from Harrisonburg represents a significant step in protecting the community,
